A: Problem solving and good communication skills are so important. Every project is different, and with constantly heightening customer expectations, these skills become more and more critical.

Q: How long have you been working in your field?

A: Being the first college graduate in my family. Go Rams!

Q: What problems do you consistently solve for your clients?

A: End users are always looking for ways to stick out in a crowd. So whether it is with a HUB Pen made with custom colors for larger orders, or utilizing any of the other companies under the HUB Promotional Group umbrella, coming up with creative ways to utilize your end user's marketing budget is something I love helping with.

Q: What is a typical day like for you?

A: My typical day starts with coffee and ends with coffee. In between are emails, fun projects, connecting with our great customers, and most importantly family time.

Q: What are you happiest doing, when you're not working?

A: If there is someone kicking, throwing, shooting, or hitting a ball...I'm watching it in my spare time. I'm a big sports fan. I also enjoy crafting different liquors like wine, mead, and limoncello.
