Q: What do you think are the best skills that you bring to your job?

A: Multi-tasking is a must when working in such a high paced industry!

Q: How long have you been working in your field?

A: Almost 3 years!

Q: What is your biggest accomplishment?

A: Beyond receiving my Bachelor's in Management and Economics from the Eisenberg School of Management I would say my biggest accomplishment is being named the 6th runner up NBC's television series, "The Voice" in 2011.

Q: What is your favorite promotional product and why?

A: HUB Pen's MaxGlide – with a smooth writing ink that combats fraudulent activity in the healthcare, financial, and other various industries – this pen does it all.

Q: What problems do you consistently solve for your clients?

A: With countless competing promotional product suppliers out there I believe it is crucial to make supplier-distributor relations as convenient as possible for the distributor. Being able to save a customer time and effort solves one of the largest problems they have on their hands on a daily basis.

Q: What is a typical day like for you?

A: I am all over New England and parts of the Mid-West teaching clients how to accommodate promotional needs with the vast array of products HUB Promotional Group is able to bring to the table.

Q: What are you happiest doing, when you're not working?

A: Over the years I have become an avid stamp collector with a great admiration toward philately. I have thousands of stamps in the collection that is growing every day. I have also recently been dabbling in knot tying; don't knock it until you try it!

Q: What is your favorite food?

A: Pizza

Q: What is your favorite place you've ever visited?

A: Waterville Valley, New Hampshire

Q: What is your favorite get pumped song?

A: "Who Let the Dogs Out" – Baha Men
