HUB Promotional Group Named NEPPA's Supplier of the Year

Foxboro, MA, March, 2019 – HUB Promotional Group has been named Supplier of the Year by the New England Promotional Products Association (NEPPA). The award presentations took place at NEPPA's Opening Reception and Awards Dinner at Scorpion Bar, Patriot Place, Foxboro, on March 11, 2019 the evening before the NEPPA Season Opener Expo.

This is the ninth year the association has bestowed Supplier of the Year awards and the second time HUB Promotional Group was named Supplier of the Year.

Joe Fleming, HUB Promotional Group President, commented, "Being recognized as the NEPPA Supplier of the Year is quite an overwhelming honor, especially considering the high caliber of the other supplier companies we were up against. We feel very privileged to serve our distributor customers and are humbled that they have selected us as being the best both in our category and overall as a supplier this year."
